11.4. Should either the Landlord or the Tenant wish to terminate the Agreement upon or after the break date (as above in the Definitions, if applicable) they shall first give to the other party at least two months' written notice. The Tenant shall continue to pay all rents and other amounts due and observe and perform all responsibilities on a timely basis until the end of the Agreement. Upon the expiry of such notice the Agreement shall end and the Tenant shall give up vacant possession of the Property.

11.5. Grounds for seeking possession

11.6. If and whenever during the Term:

11.6.1. The Rent is unpaid for 14 days after becoming due whether formally demanded or not;

11.6.2. There is a breach by the Tenant of any responsibility or other term of this Agreement;

11.6.3. All the grounds for possession in the Housing Act 1988 Schedule 2, but for the avoidance of any doubt, grounds: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 7A, 7B, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 14ZA, 14A, 15, 16 and 17 all apply;

11.6.4. The Tenant becomes bankrupt, has an administration order made in respect of his assets, has a receiver appointed, makes an arrangement for the benefit of his creditors or has any distress or execution levied on his goods, then the Landlord may bring a court action to recover possession of the Property, even if any previous right to do so has been waived.

11.7. Interest on sums due on recovery of possession

11.7.1. If the Landlord recovers possession of the Property under clause 11.5 (Grounds for seeking possession), the Tenant must pay to the Landlord interest at the Interest Rate on any outstanding Rent in accordance with clause 2.1.7.

11.8. Early Termination

11.8.1. If the Tenant requests to terminate the Agreement early, and the Landlord agrees to the early termination, then the Landlord may charge the Tenant rent until a new agreement begins and also any costs such as advertising costs and referencing fees as incurred by the Landlord in relation to finding a new Tenant. Such costs will be communicated to the Tenant and agreed upon as part of any early termination process. For the avoidance of any doubt, the Tenant will not be released from the Agreement until such costs have been paid to the Landlord.
